

a peace of my mind
EXPLORING THE MEANING OF PEACE, ONE STORY AT A TIME

Exhibit: September 15 - October 4
Event: Tuesday, September 22, 6:30 p.m.
Bloomington Civic Plaza
1800 W. Old Shakopee Rd.

In honor of the International Day of Peace, the Human Rights Commission is sponsoring the multimedia art project, "A Peace of My Mind," created by Bloomington resident John Noltner.

The exhibit features 52 portraits that are accompanied by compelling personal stories of Minnesotans who were asked the central question, "What does peace mean to you?"

John Noltner will share stories and lessons learned from interviews he conducted around the country on the topic of peace, Tuesday, September 22, 7 p.m.

Please join us for a reception before the program at 6:30 p.m.

The exhibit and event are free and open to the public.

Learn more about this project at www.apeaceofmymind.net.

For more information and event registration:

952-563-4944, TTY 952-563-4933 or humanrights@BloomingtonMN.gov

The City of Bloomington does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its services, programs, or activities. Upon request, accommodation will be provided to allow individuals with disabilities to participate in all City of Bloomington services, programs, and activities. Upon request, this information can be available in Braille, large print, audio tape and/or electronic format.